

WHS Due Diligence for Supervisors and Managers

Knowledge to exercise positive duty of care and manage safety in the working environment.

Synopsis

The workshop examines how the PCBU and Workers can apply Due Diligence in order to foresee issues and put in place plans to avert unwarranted outcomes. The course addresses the new SafeWork Australia Code of Practice in managing the risk of 'Psychosocial Hazards' in the workplace.

It is preferred that workshop attendees have a similar or same role within council.

Course Topics

In this workshop topics addressed with a focus on Due Diligence are:

- Cost of Work Health and Safety
- Leadership and Culture
- Basics of WHS legislation including Health and Safety Committee and Consultation that underpin Due Diligence
- Understand Industrial Manslaughter
- Discuss the 2023 introduction of the "Managing the risk of psychological hazards at work" Code of Practice
- Identify other Due Diligence requirements that have a WHS impact
- Understand the WorkSafe Qld enforcement and prosecutions possibilities
- Discuss Manage Risk

Course Details

Delivery Inhouse or virtual delivery

Mode Interactive workshop

Time Three Hours

Class size Max 15

Cost On request

About The Trainer

With over 25 years' experience in Work, Health and Safety and developing, designing and delivering safety programs, Ken Golden provides a down-to-earth delivery style and uses easy-to-understand practical examples to transfer learning to his participants. Ken's training and WHS experience has him delivering WHS training at all levels of local government or within the public sector. He also conducts WHS audits, reviews and inspections and his passion includes being able to influence at least one person per day to remain healthy and safe!

