peak²
services

Peak Services delivers deep expertise in the local government sector.
We understand the business of councils. Challenge us.

PUBLIC INTEREST DISCLOSURE FOR GOVERNANCE OFFICERS - eLearning

AUDIENCE

Our PID for Governance Officers eLearning program has been developed for Governance Officers whose daily tasks include ensuring accountability, transparency, legislative compliance and alignment with council's strategic objectives.

SHORT COURSE TOPICS

What Is A Public Interest Disclosure?
- Introduction to PID and the PID Act 2010 (the Act)
- What happens after a PID submission?

The Purpose Of The Act
- The Act- reviewed

PID Procedures
- Benefits of PIDs
- Consequences of not disclosing
- Risks of poorly managed PIDs
- How common are PIDs?
- Fundamental requests to make a PID
- What is a valid PID?
- Proper Authority
- Legislation, standards and procedures
- Making a PID (prior, reporting, after submissions)
- When no action is required

PID Protections
- Reprisals and examples
- PID myths

Roles And Responsibilities
- Queensland Ombudsman's Role in PIDs
- Ombudsman procedures
- Obligations to Councils
- Rights to Appeal
- False or misleading information (Penalties)
- Review of PID
- Declaration
- Assessment (10 Multiple Choice Questions)

'Learning Checks' appear at the end of each chapter to ensure uptake of the content knowledge.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

This program provides a clear outline of Public Interest Disclosures and the procedures relating to making a PID, the PID Act 2010 and responsibilities of individuals and the organisation with regards to managing the PID process.

COURSE DETAILS

Summary	Peak's eLearning course provides further technical details of the PID and how to manage a PID within council.
Delivery	This online course has been developed by Peak Services. Courses can be delivered via your own Learning Management System or by access to the course on our LMS. Certificates of completion can be printed on successful completion of your online training program.
Duration	Approximately 60 minutes

For proposals, registrations or enquiries contact us:
07 3000 2148
training@wearepeak.com.au